My name is Corinne, and I work with InterEducation, a UK-based organisation that coordinates cultural and educational stays for international students. We are currently looking for friendly host families in Belfast, Holywood, and Bangor to welcome 1 to 3 Italian students (aged 15–17) for a short summer stay from Friday 19th July to Friday 2nd August. These students are part of a supervised educational programme and will be out all day for organised group activities. We offer a compensation of £27 per student per night, which includes breakfast, packed lunch, and dinner.

How to spend your holidays according to the Popes!

Pope Leo will be taking some time off this July. He will be staying in the Papal villa in Castel Gandolfo in the Alban hills just outside Rome. Past Popes have emphasised the importance of vacation periods. Pope Paul VI for example, pointed out that during the holidays, 'we can rediscover the "always open, always new, always beautiful" creation. Nature with its "space, atmosphere, animals, things; the sea, mountains, plains, the sky with its dawns, its noons, its sunsets, and especially its starry nights" is "always deep and enchanting."

Love your neighbour

Think of one way to show you love your neighbour and write it, or draw it in the heart.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Help me, Jesus, to be like the good Samaritan. Help me to do something to help people in need, no matter who they are. Amen.

Jesus is asked, "Who is my neighbour?" so he tells a story. A man who is attacked, beaten and left by the road. People who should know better ignore him – but his enemy, a Samaritan, stops and helps him. The Samaritan is the neighbour!

Draw the story

MY NEIGHBOUR!

1. A man sets off on a journey

2. He is attacked by robbers

3. A priest walks past and ignores him

4. A Levite walks past and ignores him

5. A Samaritan stops and helps him

6. He takes him to an inn to get better

Spot the difference

Here is the good neighbour helping the stranger who was robbed.
Can you spot five differences in the two pictures?
